Marsha Blount, CEO
WOMENS AMERICAN BASKETBALL ASSOCIATION

Thursday, July 6, 2017 – New Jersey – The Womens American Basketball Association (WABA) has officially released it's inaugural season schedule. The inaugural teams for the 2017 season are; Long Island Storm, Mount Vernon ShamRocks, Jersey Expressions, DC Cyclones, Atlanta Justice, Middle Georgia Lady Pits, Orlando Splash. All WABA games will be Live Streamed, over the I95 Sports Network www.i95sportsnetwork.com on the Cube.

The official season will begin on Saturday, August 5th, with 1 game scheduled. The Long Island Storm will visit the Jersey Expressions, who play hosts, at the Waterfront, 2 Grafton Avenue, Newark, NJ for the inaugural game of the 2017 WABA season. The weekend of August 12th & 13th 2 will feature 5 games. Saturday, Middle Georgia takes on Atlanta, in a battle of the State, Long Island hosts Mount Vernon in a battle of NY, and DC hosts Jersey. Sunday, Mount Vernon will host Jersey, and Middle Georgia will host Orlando. the cull league schedule is available on our website @ www.womensaba.com.

The ABA is extremely excited to have a sister league, the newly-formed WABA under the leadership of Marsha Blount, WABA CEO. Marsha's ABA team, the Jersey Express, is the oldest team in the ABA and one of the best managed and she is also on the ABA Executive Committee and a Division Chairman. It is no surprise that she has been able to achieve what several others have not been able to achieve in developing the WABA. We know it will be successful this season and will grow rapidly in years to come. Joe Newman, ABA CEO.

The WABA is the Sister League to the Historic ABA, the largest professional sports league in the world. There are many markets available throughout the Country, and we have made it easy to own and operate a WABA team. Market Reservation information for the 2018 season, is now available for download @ www.womensaba.com.
